

10th ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON ARCHITECTURE AND URBANISM 2021 CONTEMPORARY RESEARCH AS A RESPONSE TO TRANSIENCE

NOV 10, 2021 / FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE BRNO UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY / CZECH REPUBLIC

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Dear colleagues, let me invite you to participate at the 10th ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON ARCHITECTURE AND URBANISM 2021, which will be organized again on-line, this year on 10th November 2021 by the Faculty of Architecture of Brno University of Technology, Czech Republic.

The international conference will be organized for PhD students in order to exchange experience and knowledge between research institutes and young researchers during the meeting. The students will present the results of their research focused on the thematic scope of the conference in two areas of Architecture and Urban planning. This year's 10th annual conference is a follow up on previous conferences held in Prague in 2011, 2014 and 2017 in Bratislava in 2012 and 2015 and in Brno in 2013, 2016, 2019 and 2020.

Previous keynote speakers:

2019 – Professor Timothy Brown from Clemson University (former vice-dean of IIT Chicago).

2020 – Professor Christopher De Sousa of Ryerson University, Canada.

2021 keynote speaker will be announced

We are inviting you to present an oral presentation of 15–20 slides in English, a full-text of your paper 4–5 pages long also in English (when accepted in double-blind peer review, the paper will be published in the Book of Proceedings and indexed in Google Scholar as well as it will be sent to Clarivate for review). We also invite you to exhibit your conference poster (B1 size, portrait oriented) which will present the essence of the topic of your research at an accompanying exhibition in an on-line gallery similar to the 2020 conference.

We will be happy to review the full text of your original unpublished paper, after your abstract is recommended by the scientific committee.
